

An Overview of the Rocky Mountain TMJ Surgical Conference

Founded in 1991 by Robert W. Christensen, DDS, FAIMBE, the Rocky Mountain TMJ Surgical exists to "Advance Global TMJ Knowledge." Headquartered at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, in Golden, Colorado, the RMTMJSC serves the dental and medical communities with a multitude of services.

Conferences

Faculty members of the Surgical Conference have conducted learning opportunities around the world over the course of the last 14 years. These have included conferences under the RMTMJSC name, Grand Rounds presentations, Visiting Professor lectures, keynote speeches at society meetings, and presentations at national association congresses, and live surgery educational seminars.

The TMJournal

The RMTMJSC publishes a monthly scientifically informative periodical produced in electronic format (Adobe pdf). Distribution is primarily to healthcare professionals (currently numbering over 82,000) in over 140 countries.

TMJournalLIVE

A video news magazine, TMJournalLIVE is produced by the RMTMJSC on a monthly basis. This scientifically informative video series is distributed in electronic format (Windows Media Player swf) to over 82,000 healthcare professionals in 140+ countries.

Clinical Papers

The RMTMJSC has amassed a large collection of papers, abstracts, and presentations from leading worldwide TMJ authorities. Articles about TMJ treatment from professional OMS, dental, and medical journals are available in Adobe pdf format.

In the News

Newspaper, TV, and documentary clips showing important news in the field of TMJ reconstructive surgery have been gathered by the RMTMJSC. These are made available to all interested parties.
